

COUNCIL ON AGING
SERVICES FOR SENIORS

Social Security Seminar

Sponsored by
Council on Aging

Wednesday, April 13, 2005

3—5:30 PM

Council on Aging Office

730 Bennett Valley Road, Santa Rosa

Dr. Carroll Estes, Professor of Sociology at UCSF and founding director of the Institute for Health and Aging; Board member, The National Committee to Preserve Social Security & Medicare

&

Michael Randolph, MS, CFP, Randolph Managed vestments

- Advantages of the current Social Security program versus Privatization from a financial advisor's perspective.
- Social Security's role as a safety net and universal social assurance Program for all.
- Social Security as a successful anti-poverty program for 70 years.
- The myths surrounding Social Security solvency.

This seminar is sponsored by the Education Committee of the Council on Aging Services for Seniors

Reservations are Required: Call Council on Aging at 525-0143